July 13-19, 2008, Skopje, Macedonia

American composer, film maker, master percussionist, writer and arts educator Stacey Fox and her trio will visit Macedonia July 13-19, 2008. The trio will start the tour in Stip performing at Stip Summer Festival. The tour will continue in Bitola, the 2008 "City of culture", on the Bitola summer festival. The tour will conclude with a performance in Skopje July 18th at 9:30 in Suli AN.

Combining musical styles and instruments from around the world with contemporary technology, the Fox Trio's compositional palette often includes film, sculpture, painting, spoken word and movement. Fox's Macedonian concerts will include big drum Native American sounds, traditional Inuit and Tibetan influences, as well as some rock and roll and modern musical elements.

A truly international artist, Stacey Fox has performed in Japan, South America, North America and Europe. In addition, the trio features Maria Anthony (flute, guitar, vocals) and Megan Hurt (violin, vocals).

The U.S. Embassy would like to extend appreciation to the organizers and co-sponsors of this program. Special thanks go to the organizers of Skopje Summer Festival, BitFest from Bitola, Stip Summer Festival and cultural center Tocka in Skopje.
